FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

COLLABORATIVE RESPONSE BRINGS CALM RESOLUTION TO CRISIS INCIDENT

RAHWAY, NJ – November 20, 2024 – On November 19, 2024, Rahway Police Department officers responded to a mental health crisis on the 1700 block of Whittier Street. With assistance from the Union County Emergency Response Team, negotiators successfully convinced the individual to exit the residence peacefully. The person was safely transported to a local hospital for treatment.

"This incident underscores our department's commitment to the safety and well-being of every member of our community," said Chief Law Enforcement Officer Captain Shawn Ganley. "I commend the professionalism of our officers and the Union County Emergency Response Team for their coordinated efforts in resolving this crisis safely and compassionately."
